Your computer screen will now look something like this (may vary depending on how your computer is set up)-you will not see the circle
(Chrome browser MAY show an error message. I have found that the message does not prevent the document from being used.)

IMPORTANT: Do not type anything in the username and password boxes yet.

Having trouble logging in?

Review the following information:

- Ensure you are connected to the Internet
- Use the latest version of Adobe Reader/Acrobat (version 7.0+) for Windows or Mac
- Confirm you have the correct username and password

Use your save function or button for the web document so it goes onto the desktop of your computer. The save function or button might be set up in several different ways depending on your computer (therefore no image is provided)

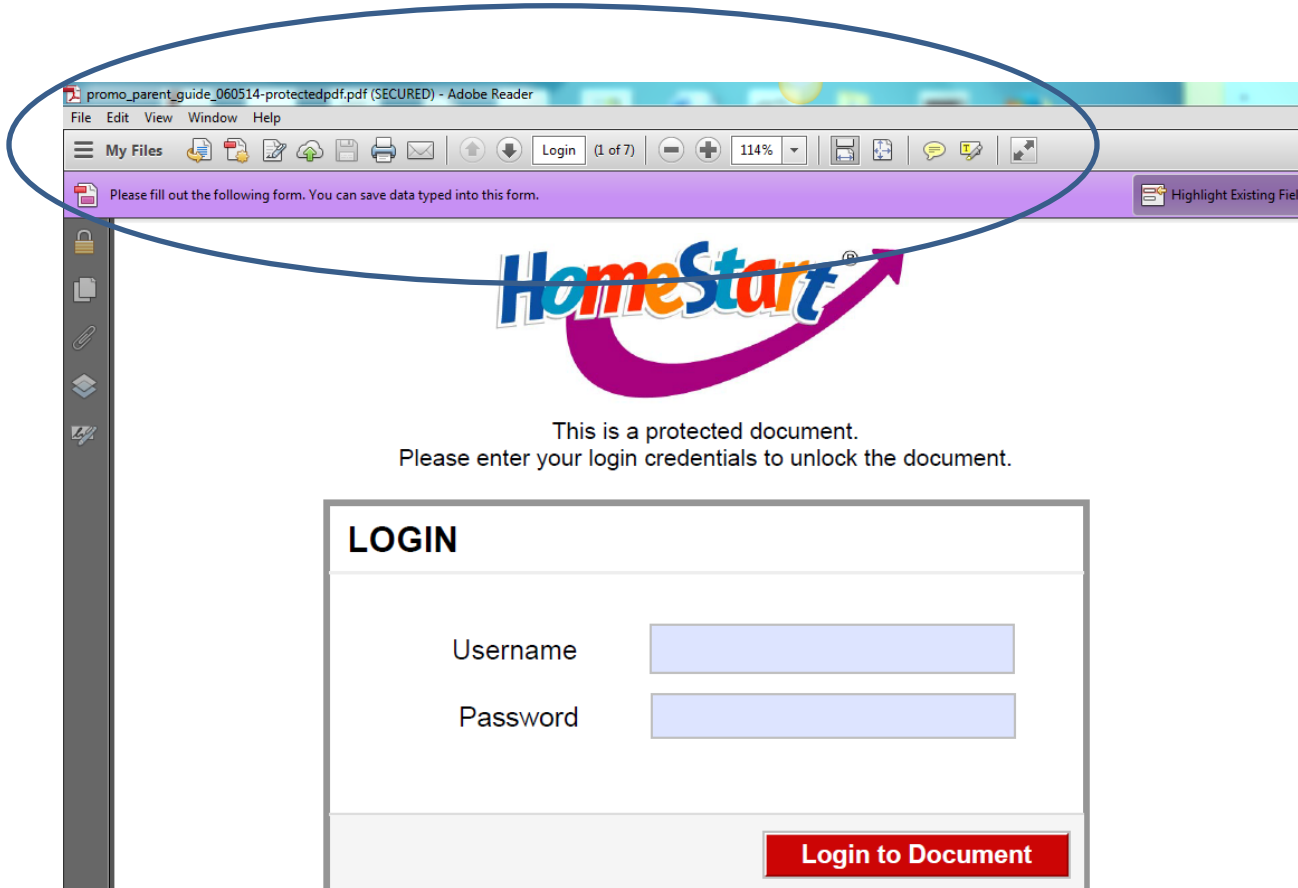

After the web document is properly saved to your desktop you should see something like this (color may be different)

Click on the image to open the document

Screen now looks similar to this image (you will not see the circle)

Now type in the Document Opening Username and Password provided (instead of your membership information).

Your screen should display the Promo Parent Guide which can be printed out.

PARENT ACTIVITY GUIDE

This guide is for you to use with your child. It will provide quality time together and further academic success for your child.

PREP FOR ACTIVITY #1 - EYES ON YOUR EYES
(Reading/Vocabulary enrichment/Science)

This activity will help your child learn more about the parts of our eyes and how they function.

DO FIRST:

- 1. Have ready: index cards, paper, pencils crayons, pieces of yarn, shells raisins (any small objects)

On some computers, there is a need to change one setting on Adobe software. The special setting is in the EDIT MENU under PREFERENCES. Uncheck the box for GLOBAL OBJECT SECURITY POLICY. Note: This may not happen for your computer.
